

Intense Enthusiasm For Baldwin Marks All Maui Meetings

clusion of Hawaii in appropriation measures, which such Republican could do better than could a member of the opposition party.

John Wise took for his slogan party harmony and urged it. He told of his own candidacy for the nomination and said that no great credit belonged to him for making the motion to make the nomination of Baldwin unanimous in the convention. He meant what he said when he made the motion and he urged a similar unanimity at the polls. Wise said that McCandless said Baldwin was a "rich man's son" while McCandless had risen from a working man. Wise said he had been told that when Harry Baldwin was born H. P. Baldwin was a working man and his wife kept his house without a servant. McCandless said Baldwin was born with a "silver spoon in his mouth" and McCandless had made a mistake, it must have been a tin horn he had in his mouth at birth.

Senator Desha Heard

Rev. Stephen R. Desha spoke in Hawaiian and brought out points to show the friendship between Baldwin and Kuhio and refuting charges of unkindness made by McCandless and his followers. He made a profound impression upon the Hawaiians in the audience and roused them to cheers repeatedly.

Senator Rice spoke much in the tenor of his talk at Wailuku and urged a 99.34 percent vote for Baldwin.

J. Garcia of the Bank of Maui, one of the leading Foresters of the Island nailed a tie that was being circulated by McCandless supporters that Baldwin interests were charging the Foresters $2000 yearly ground rent for the site of the new Foresters' Building and told the audience the ground rent is only $15 a month. He also told of the friendship between Baldwin and the Foresters and the assistance rendered in getting them their building.

Garcia put on the same "Three Mice" show that he staged in the Wailuku meeting the previous night and made an equal hit with the Kahului audience.

John Lane answered questions which he said homesteaders of the Kihel section had asked him that afternoon and also answered charges that Baldwin would seek a commission form of government of Hawaii showing the impossibility of such a course on the part of the delegate. Otherwise Mr. Lane's speech was much the same as that he made in Wailuku.

Frank F. Baldwin was the last speaker. He drove home three points: the importance of sending a Republican to deal with Republicans; of sending a man who knew the sugar industry and its needs at a time when the situation of that industry was so critical and the reasons for Maui folk voting for a Maui man.

Last Paia Meeting

M. A. Company Theater at Paia was too small for the crowd that sought admittance last night. It was crowded to capacity and there were crowds all about it that could not get in. Senator Baldwin spoke in his home community and John C. Lane and Senators Wise and Desha had been hurried back from Molokai and motored over from Lahaina to be there for the meeting. Senator Rice and J. Garcia were other speakers and the surprise of the evening was when Antonio de Rego took the platform in advocacy of the election of Harry Baldwin. Akoni "Paakai" said he was a democrat and had always been a Democrat but this year it was different, there was a Maui man running and that man was Harry Baldwin and so he felt he must cut party ties. He urged other Democrats to do the same.

Season Goes On

The regular three game program of baseball will be handed the fans of the national outdoor pastime on the Saturday and Sunday schedule.

Election day, Saturday, the Maui Hi will attempt to romp on the Asahi nine and thereby break into the games won column. Meantime the Asahi's will try to clinch, for the present, their hold on third place and another victory added to their string will give them a good lead over the teams in the second division.

Sunday's games will move either the Sakuras or the Waihees aggregation out of the cellar position. The two teams are tied for that honor, neither having won a game. Waihee has greatly improved their team by hard and consistent practice and it is possible may treat the fans to a huge surprise by playing an excellent brand of ball.

In the first contest Sakura meets the Wacs. The Japanese ball tossers will have to be on their toes at all times to secure a win from the "Cummings Juniors" who have crowded the hard slugging Sports to one side and hang perilously to the top rung. The double header to follow will put the Waihee and Asahi nines together in a evenly matched fray.

British Golfers to Make Summer Tour United States

LONDON, Feb. 23—(Associated Press Mail)—J. H. Taylor (Mid-Surrey) and Alex "Sandy" Herd (Coombe Hill), who are among the most prominent British golfers, have arranged to sail early in July for a three months tour in the United States.

Taylor and Herd both have won the British open championship, the former on five occasions and Herd once, 22 years ago. It will be "Sandy's" first visit to the United States, where two of his brothers have spent many years. The Mid-Surrey player was there in 1900, when he was second to Harry Vardon, another British leader, in the American open championship. They intend to leave England after the British Open.

ANSWERS TO TUESDAY'S QUERIES

Louisville won the "Minor League World Series" last fall by beating Baltimore 5 games to 3.

The world's championship tennis matches will be played at Wimbledon, England, commencing June 26.

Gordon Muncie of New York, is United States amateur heavyweight champion.

Charles Paddock holds or has tied the world's records for the 90, 100, 110, 130, 150, 200, 220 and 300 yards and the 100, 200 and 300 meters. The Chicago and Detroit teams made a combined total of 35 runs (20-15) in a game on September 9 last.

Inter-Club Smoker is Postponed for Week

The Interclub smoker that was to have been held last night is postponed to March 25 to enable those aspirants to a pugilistic realm that will mix in the mill to better their condition for the fracas.

Fistic knights of the Sports and Paia Athletic Clubs and probably a few comers in independent roles will stage what purports to be a grand revival of the boxing game on the Valley Isle, on that night.

The main attraction offered by the matchmakers will be a six round battle with "Lefty" Chartrand of the newly organized Paia Athletic Club in the role of "Paia no ka oi" and his opponent no other than Joe Correa, a former navy boy whose cleverness in the roped arena in former contests is well known in the Islands. Chartrand's pugilistic activities while in the 17th cavalry in Honolulu are well enough known that no introductions are needed.

The services of George Melancon as the third man in the ring have been secured and no doubt the former boxer's decisions will be popular with the fans.

Tennis

NEW YORK, March 17—(Associated Press)—The United States Lawn Tennis Association announced tonight the results of the drawings for the Davis cup matches as follows: First round, upper half, Canada vs. French team; Belgium vs. Australia; Hawaii vs. Czechoslovakia. First round, lower half, Spain vs. the Philippines; Rumania vs. India; Italy vs. Japan. Second round, upper half, by the British Isles.

Reports coming from officio Eddie Tam, junior magnate of the tennis world on Maui were received this week and tell of many new arrangements made by the Maui Tennis Committee. The report follows:

"At a recent meeting of the All-Maui Tennis Committee, it was decided to limit the entries for the different All-Maui tennis tournaments to be scheduled this year to five entries from each tennis club on Maui. All players desiring to play in any of the All-Maui tournaments must belong to or affiliate with one of the tennis clubs in order to be entered in any All-Maui tennis tournament. No individual entries will be considered."

"With this arrangement the All-Maui Tennis Committee believes that better tennis will be played in the All-Maui tournaments this year. The various clubs will have a better chance to stimulate tennis in their respective districts by providing challenge or elimination tournaments to bring out only the best players to enter the All-Maui events."

"The All-Maui Tennis Committee expects to call for entries from the various clubs for men's and ladies' doubles tournament on or about June 1st, 1922. It is therefore, in order for the tennis committees of the different clubs to make a start now to provide elimination tournaments for their players so that the proper entries will be available for the All-Maui tournaments."

Word received by Eddie Tam, secretary of the tennis committee of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association from A. L. Castle, president of the Hawaiian Lawn Tennis Association, hints at big things in store for the followers of the racket pastime on the Valley Isle. According to Mr. Castle, Robert and Howard Kinsey who rank third in the doubles teams on the mainland will be in Hawaii next month for a tennis tournament.

It is proposed that the two stars be sent to Maui during their stay in Hawaii, to meet the players here. Tennis of a brand to excel any seen on Maui will be handed the fans, it is thought, should the Kinsey brothers play here.

Receipts from the exhibitions would in all probability go towards the fund for sending a team from Hawaii to compete for the Davis cup which has already been decided upon.

Exact dates of their appearance here are not yet obtainable but it is thought the tournaments would begin about April 5th. Further word is expected soon from Mr. Castle and should the plans materialize, then a call for entries on Maui will be in order.

Hot Contests Mark Second Round in Tournament Play

Alerts Take Second Win From Lahainaluna and Wacs go Down to L. A. A. in Last Quarter

Alumni Alerts bid fair to annex the title of Maui Champion basket ball players. The Alumni squad took their second straight game of the title series last night, winning over Lahainaluna on the latter's home floor by the score of 21-18.

The East Maui champs started the ball a rolling with the opening gun. Shige was passing and shooting to the top of his form and caged three baskets in the opening frame. James Akina and Sequeira also found the hoop in the initial quarter. Lahainaluna scored but once in the period when Lau found the net on a free toss. Score first quarter, Alerts 10, Lahainaluna 1.

Lahainaluna picked up a little in the second quarter and the work of their guards was much more effective. Hangai was the only Alumni player to cage the ball in the frame. Lau and Sniffen ringed the casaba for the West Maui quintet. Score at half, Alerts 12, Lahainaluna 5.

Each five scored an additional four points in the third period, Kahoolaho-hano twice caging a basket for the Alerts and a basket by Sniffen and free throws converted by Keaku and Kauli. Score at third quarter, Alerts 16, Lahainaluna 9.

West Maui came in with a resounding bang in the last period of the game. However, the Alerts added a few points to their total during the quarter and when the whistle blew came out on the long end. Sniffen found the hoop three times for West Maui. Kalawai caged for another two points and Kauli converted a foul to goal. Sequeira and Akina saved the day for the Alerts each caging the ball from the field and Hangai converting. Final score, Alerts 21, Lahainaluna 18.

Wacs go Down

Tradition was blown to the four corners in the second contest and the L. A. A. after evening the score in the third quarter, walked away in a whirlwind of accurate shooting, scoring twelve points, and winning the fray 26-15.

Wacs led from the start, Rodrigues and Vesta being the point getters for the East Maui team. Lindsay alone, scored for L. A. A., converting three free trys. First quarter, Wacs 6, L. A. A. 3.

In the second frame the East Maui team slightly increased their lead. Rodrigues and Cummings caged a basket and Cummings converted a free throw. Wong scored from the field for Lahaina and Lindsay found the hoop on two free trys. Score at half Wacs, 11, L. A. A. 7.

Wacs fell down badly in the third period, Souza being the only man to score. Wong scored from the field and Lindsay caused a sensation by converting five consecutive free throws. Score at third quarter, Wacs 13, L. A. A. 14.

The last eight minutes of play saw an exodus of scoring by the West Maui quintet. Takatsuka, who had heretofore failed to score caged the ball on four consecutive attempts. Lindsay and Wong brought up the total by each scoring from the field. Rodrigues caged a basket for the Wacs. Final score, L. A. A. 26, Wacs 15.

The feature of the game, and the outstanding reason of the Wacs defeat was the brilliant throwing of Lind say who converted 10 consecutive free throws to goal.

Next Games Tuesday

Wacs meet the Alerts on the Wailuku gym floor Tuesday night. Upon that game hinges the outcome of the championship series. If the Wacs are returned victorious over the Alumni they will be deadlocked for the title. Wednesday night at Lahaina Armory L. A. A. and Lahainaluna engage in battle. Should L. A. A. defeat the Lahainaluna team as is predicted a triple tie will be the result and extra games will have to be played to decide the championship. Exhibition matches will prelude each contest.

Sulgrave Manor to be Washington Memorial

LONDON, Feb. 21—(Associated Press Mail)—The Sulgrave Institution, which is primarily concerned with fostering friendly relations between this country and America, has decided to appoint a national board of 50 British and 50 American members.

It has also been decided to vest the property at Sulgrave Manor, the birthplace of George Washington in a joint British and American body of trustees consisting of 18 members.

President Harding had promised to give to Sulgrave Manor an elm tree from Mount Vernon, Washington's home in Virginia, and Mrs. Harding has promised a cutting from Martha Washington's rose tree at Mount Vernon.
